C. of C. Check

A Helping Hand

A check for $300 to the Bayshore Citizens Committee was presented at last week's Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce luncheon at Cypress Hills golf course.

The check, presented to Mrs. Kenneth Pack of the committee by Frank Martorana, chamber director, will help pay attorney fees which the Bayshore Citizens Committee accrued in its recent annexation litigations with the City of Brisbane.

The commitee hired Attorney Tom Bocci to contest the City of Brisbane's annexation proposals to annex parts of Bayshore City and other industrial portions of Bayshore.

Present with Mrs. Pack was her husband, Kenneth Pack, prominent in the circulation of petitions in which Bayshore City recently petitioned with over 600 signers to annex to Daly City, Mrs. Florence Osterberg, citizens committee treasurer and Mrs. Barbara Stuyvengen, citizens committee secretary.

Mrs. Pack reported $1100 had been collected from Bayshore Citizens to help defray annexation litigation costs.

County Road Program

William Chapman, city engineer for Daly City, explained that Daly City would be getting a larger proportionate share than other cities in the proposed city-county road program to be voted upon this June. Daly City has a 5.8 per cent of the county assessed valuation and the county highway.

Chamber Events

The following events of importance to the Chamber were announced by President Bernard Lycett:

Queen Contest finals, June 5 at SSF Elks Club banquet hall.

Mary's Help Hospital groundbreaking, April.

Chamber Golf Tournament, May 2, Lake Merced.

Bid Opening Set on Route 1 In Pacifica

Notice of invitation to bid will be made public Friday, March 29 by the state department of highways on Pacifica Route 1, (Coast Highway) for construction of 1.1 miles of freeway south of Sharp Park Road to .2 miles north of Manor Drive.

Bids will be opened May 8, and construction is to begin immediately afterward. Approximate cost of the entire project is $4.3 million dollars.

The proposed coast highway will include 3.2 miles of freeway, one undercrossing at Sharp Park Golf Course, four crossings for traffic and two on-freeway bus stops.

It includes frontage roads on both sides, starts at the present end of the Edgemar Freeway and runs to Fairway Park. Pacifica councilmen have asked for expansion of the proposed freeway from two to four lanes at Fairway Park. The route was adopted by the State Highway Commission in January, 1958.

Part Time Work For Teens to Start May 1

The Teenage Chamber of Commerce is maintaining its job agency. This is for part-time work, starting May 1, for after-school and weekends.

Starting June 15, students will be eligible for full-time employment. This job agency will be available only for teenagers from ages 14 through 18, who live in the Colma and Daly City area.

The work they will be looking for will be car washing, lawn mowing, baby sitting, painting, gardening, cleaning basements, etc. Interested persons may mail a card to T. E. A., care Saxe Realty Co., 2384 Junipero Serra boulevard, Daly City.

State job selection, age and sex, plus name, address and phone number.

New Police and Fire Recruits Needed in D. C.

A recruiting drive for more policemen and firemen has been started by the City of Daly City personnel office.

William Hawley, assistant city administrator, said the city needs to recruit now because the annexation of Bayshore City will open up new jobs.

If Bayshore comes into Daly City, then a minimum of six patrolmen will be needed, plus several firemen.

Applications may be obtained by writing or visiting the Personnel Department, City Hall, Daly City, or by phoning PL 5-0850, extension 23. Applications must be filed not later than Friday, April 26.

Body Is Found After 3 Weeks

The body of Burton Pickell, 58, of 53 Eastlake avenue, was found at his home last Friday by Daly City police after friends complained they hadn't seen him for several days.

Local police found Pickell, clothed only in a T-shirt, lying beside the sink near his bedroom.

From newspaper clippings found in the home and letters from the mail box dated March 6, as well as the advanced state of decomposition of the body, coroners said the man had been dead about three weeks.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Daly City. Date of death was figured at March 3.

CIVIL DEFENSE Hospital—Mayor Verducci and Wallace Benson, Mayor of Belmont, unload medical supplies that comprise the 200-bed Civil Defense Emergency Hospital which is being moved and stored in Daly City this week. The emergency hospital would be set-up to serve the injured of the area in time of disaster. It is complete with three operating rooms, pharmacy, X-ray, triage center, clinical laboratory, and ten 20 bed wards.

Hospital Arrives Today

A complete Civil Defense Emergency Hospital, to be set up in time of disaster, is being moved into Daly City this week, under a redistribution program of the Area Civil Defense Office, according to Mayor Joseph Verducci, who is also Vice-Chairman of the Area Disaster Council Planning Board.

The completely prepackaged emergency hospital contains 367 packages, weighs 13-½ tons, occupies 2,000 cubic feet of storage space, and costs almost $50,000.

The hospital, worth about $26,500, will be stored in the basement of the new Catholic elementary school at Our Lady of Mercy Church, 1 Elmwood drive, in Westlake.

This hospital will only be used in the event of a natural or man made disaster and will be staffed by doctors assigned by the San Mateo County Medical Association.

Daly City officials began looking for a site last June, and after scanning what buildings were available, selected the OLM basement site.

When set up, the emergency hospital has a 200 bed capacity, and can accommodate as many as 100 patients by use of special backup materials. It is complete with three operating rooms, a clinical laboratory, a sterilizing room, a central supply, an X-ray room, triage area, a pharmacy, storage and office spaces.

At capacity, the staff would include ten physicians, 20 nurses, 125 trained auxiliaries, and some 300 volunteer workers.

It would take 115 man-hours to set up the emergency hospital and would require 15,000 square feet in area for it to be efficiently operated.

The emergency hospital has its own 1500 gallon water storage tank and a gasoline engine driven generator of electrical power.

Including among the latest scientific equipment is a portable X-ray unit which uses the Polaroid-Land process to develop the completed positive films in 60 seconds.

The missions of the Civil Defense Emergency Hospital is to provide early hospitalization for the seriously ill or injured as close as possible to the stricken area for life-saving reparative treatment or surgery.

There are 160 of these emergency hospitals distributed throughout California to serve the public in the event of a major natural disaster or wartime condition.

Two of these emergency hospitals were previously stored at the County Sanatorium, but under the redistribution system, based on population and projected problems of transportation in time of a major disaster, one of these hospitals has been transferred to Belmont and this one into Daly City.

Council Gives Election Notice

The Daly City Council Monday set a hearing date for April 22 at 8 p.m. in which to hear protests on the proposed Bayshore City annexation.

At the same time the council adopted a resolution to give notice that a special election will be called on annexation.

City attorney Paul Hupf announced that 612 signatures from Bayshore City registered voters were obtained on a petition to annext to Daly City. This is more than one fourth of the voters, which is required by law.

Parking Meters

The council turned bids for new parking meters over to the city staff. Recommendations will be made at the next council meeting.

The council voted denial on a petition filed by William Lagomarsino to rezone property on the northwest corner of West Cavour and San Bruno street from single family residential to multiple family residential. The rezoning was opposed by the Jefferson Union High School district.

Edward Morgan, district superintendent, said the board opposed the rezoning because the construction of a multiple dwelling apartment house would lead to an impossible traffic situation and would fall into the general classification of spot zoning, which is opposed to all advocates of sound city planning.

By September 1 of this year, the main entrance to the Jefferson High School campus will be via Bruno avenue, he said.

Denial of the rezoning request was recommended by the Daly City Planning Commission.

The board approved use permits for signs for Standard Oil Company, Douglas Mack Photography, Berkeley Farms Dairy Products and Henry Doelger Builder, Inc.

Business license requests were approved for Frozen Food Brokers, St. Francis Cleaners, Gary Huston, Jr., landscape gardener; Waserman Enterprises, and Portrait by Penhouse.

The council accepted a resolution that the 1963 resurfacing of streets was complete.

The council passed a resolution for conveyance of real estate in the Knowles avenue - Los Banos project for Lewis and Josephine Mazzera and Pasquale and Rose Martire.

A resolution was approved to make April 3 "Y-Indian

San Francsco Against Cow Palace Annex

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors Monday voted unanimously to oppose the attempt by Daly City to annex the Cow Palace in Bayshore City.

Charles A. Ertola introduced the measure in support of the Cow Palace directors, who oppose annexation of the big sports and convention center just south of San Francisco's county line by "any" San Mateo County community.

A state-owned institution, the mammoth structure on Geneva avneue in Mission's Visitacation, is operated by the No. 1-A District Agricultural Association, an agency of the state of California representing San Mateo and San Francisco counties.

The Cow Palace, if annexed to Daly City, would bring in thousands of dollars of extra sales tax revenues into the city.

Cow Palace directors issued a statement last week as being opposed to the annexation.

The board, according to president Fred P. Cox, is satisfied with the present situation of the State of California property being part of both San Francisco and San Mateo Counties.

The board does not agree that the Cow Palace should be associated with one city, he said.

Youth Art Exhibit Opens In Daly City

The Lions Club bi-annual Youth Art Exhibit is being held March 27 through March 31 at the Community Memorial Building in Daly City and is open to the public free of admission.

Invitations have been sent out to organizations throughout the Peninsula and it is expected thousands of people will view the exhibits.

The art work consists of almost all forms of art expression by 15,000 school children and youths enrolled in all the schools in Daly City.

Some of the outstanding entries will be ceramics, water color, and photography by local high school students.

Pride in creativity by kindergarten and first grade children will be as prominent as that of their older school mates. Water color, oil, tempera, crayola, chalk, clay, and ink are some of the media used. Stitchery, finger painting, paper sculpture, mosaics, pottery, weaving—all will be on display in a profusion of shape, size, color, form and design. An artistic treat is in store for the many people who will attend.

Lion Lyal Ingersoll is the committee chairman in charge of all arrangements. He has every Lions Club member assigned to a specific task to make the art exhibit one of the outstanding community events of the year.

Guests at a Lions Club dinner on Wednesday, March 27, will be the Daly City council, the Daly City recreation commission, the Daly City manager, and the art supervisors of the local elementary and high schools.

The dinner is to honor the invited guests and the opening of the Lions Club's bi-annual Youth Art Exhibit.

Special Study on Pedro Valley Upland Area

A joint meeting to review a proposal for special study for most of the upland area of Pedro Valley, was held Tuesday by Pacifica planners and councilmen.

The area includes some 2,300 acres, which could take in something like 45,000 persons.

City staff members are concerned with what kind of development the area should have, the density of the area, would tie into the cross and how roads would tie into the cross county freeway Route 229 and Sharp Park Road.

They are also concerned with the lack of variety of much of Pacifica's housing, of large tract homes, resulaing in the same kind of homeowner purchasing power, and family size.

The city would like to have more variety. The study is to find whether consultant Ed Robinson of Hahn-Wise and Associates of San Carlos should proceed with planning for the area.

Pacifica could in the next ten years become the fourth largest city in San Mateo County, according to Mel Davis, city planner. The population is now about 27,000.

LEUKEMIA VOLUNTEER Mrs. Wilma D. Leilich, 117 Gambetta street, Daly City, is among over 3,000 volunteers collecting funds for Leukemia Society research.

St. Clair Appeals for Easter Seal Donations

San Mateo County residents who intend to respond to the 1963 Easter Seal mail appeal which came into their homes within the past few days were urged today to "give before you forget."

Jimmy Davenport, Giants Baseball star and Bob St. Clair, 49er all-conference tackle, co-chairmen of the drive for 1963, issued a joint appeal to every citizen to send in something to help the crippled kiddies.

Bob St. Clair, resident of Daly City, said today in commenting on progress of the drive, "Every one of the 132,000 homes in San Mateo County has received the Easter Seals, and up to date we have only heard from 8,672 of them, so we have hopes that there will be a great deal more money come in."

The funds are the major source of support for the Rehabilitation Center and the amount received determines how many of the county's handicapped persons will receive help they so critically need. Contributions may be sent to "Easter Seals, c/o your local Postmaster."

'This Is Your Life' Program for R. Weibel

About 250 parents and teachers of the Daniel Webster PTA waited in suspense to see the "surprise" program held last Wednesday evening at the March unit meeting. The person to be the most surprised was H. Z. Weibel, principal of the Daniel Webster School.

The lights blacked out and candle bearers, Amy and Doug Hall,, silently walked around the room. Suddenly they stopped in front of Mr. Weibel and announced,

"Mr. H. Z. Weibel, this is your life." Mr. Earl Hall,, vice-president and program chairman, began reading the story of his life while flashes of photographs of his early life appeared on a screen.

Mr. Weibel was born near the city of Omaha, Nebr. He was the middle boy of seven children and led an active childhood. During his high school days he was elected senior class president and was a leter-winning basketball player.

Ranch Country

After graduating from high school he headed for the farm and ranch country of Western Nebraska. After taking summer college courses to qualify for teaching, Weibel taught two years in a one-room rural school near his home town.

Leaving teaching, he took a year's course in business college but then decided to enter the University of Nebraska for further teaching training. Offered a principalship at Auburn, Nebraska, he accepted but continued his education through extension courses and summer school for the next six years. During this time he met a professor's assistant who later became Mrs. H. Z. Weibel, presently a kindergarten teacher for the South San Francisco Schools.

Depression years followed, but Mr. Weibel continued his education to receive a Masters Degree. His first son, Dean, now married and associated with the Coldwell-Banker Realty Co. in San Rafael, was born. Mr. Weibel received an Elementary Principalship in Grand Island, Nebraska, and there enrolled at Northwestern University with the Doctor of Philosophy as his goal. His son Dale, presently a student at the California School of Dentistry, was born during this time, followed in 1942 by the birth of a daughter, Carol, who is a senior at the University of California in Berkeley.

Move To Taft

An almost fatal illness confined Mr. Weibel to the hospital for six months, but his devotion and sense of obligation to his family assisted in his recovery. Then in 1948, for the health of one of his children, he and his family moved to Taft, California, where he was assistant Superintendent and director of education for the elementary schools.

In 1951, the Weibel family moved to Daly City at the beginning of a period of tremendous growth, and became active citizens in the community. With a dedicated staff, Mr. Weibed served as district superintendent. When the Daniel Webster School was partially ready for occupancy, Mr. Weibel became its first principal. He is also a member of the Salvation Army Service Committee, has served on the board of the Friends of the Daly City Library, is an Elder of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, a member of the Masonic Lodge, and is currently President of the Daly-City Lions Club.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the City Council of the City of Daly City as follows:

1. The City Council finds that said petitions filed with the City Clerk of this City are those certain petitions heretofore approved for circulation by this City Council pursuant to Resolution No. 3301 of this City Council adopted February 25, 1963.

at Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

The Broadmoor Mixed Fives League and the Kings and Queens 850 Mixed Scratch League provided most of the action Thursday night as Steve Outler rolled a 268 game and 633 series while "King" Bob Hallback shot a terrific 267 game and 654 series. Steve's game and series set new highs in the Broadmoor League. Leading ladies in the two leagues were Jean Wiitala with 181 and 500 and Wonnie Gracheff with a 203 game and 245 series.

Frank Guidice and Flo Goodin led the High Rollers Mixed Fives for the week with 192, 514 and 165—452, respectively, while across the Bowl, Kay French and Walt Enni provided the leadership in the Twilight Mixed Fives with 233-568 and 214-595.

It was "Hail to the Champs" Wednesday night as sponsor Jim McDougall was on hand with Mrs. McDougall to receive the trophy for his McDougall Press team which clinched the 915 All-Star League. Captain John Bazzanella, who finished the league with a 194 average, presented the trophy while team members Chris Perini, Walt Yaz olino, Rich Brewer, Tim Dunn and Primo Liberatore looked on.

It's spring league sign-up time as March 30 finds the first organizational meeting for the new season on schedule. A meeting will be held at 6:30 to set up the organization of a Wednesday evening 6:15 p.m. Mixed Fives loop. During the next few weeks bowlers may take their choice of a wide variety of league activity.

Burgie Bergerson took top honors in the Westlake Classic last week with a big 239 game and 619 series. Burgie was closely followed by Gary Attel with 619 and Joe Nessinger and Al Baletto, both of whom had 608 series.

A new high game record was set in the American Masters League as Andy Kenser shot a terrific 265 game on his way to a 625 series. Six other members of the league bettered the 600 mark for the evening: Al Palmer with 648, Steve Bonuccelli with 633, Vince Logue, 622; John Schmidt, 612, and Steve Kosimides and Bill Greer with 610 each.

Gari Snyder could do no wrong in the A-1 Nursery Ladies League as she started with a 141 game, jumped to a big 218 second game and finished with 203 for a terrific 562 series. Ann Heineman shot a 217 game and Norma Wagner a 207 to complete the high rolling for the day.

The second annual Gold Coast Classic opened Saturday with a large crowd on hand for the opening squad. This tournament brought hundreds of dollars in prize money to Westlake bowlers last year and many of them are back to try again. The $4.25 entry fee offers opportunities for cash prizes in qualifying, house final and grand final rounds.

The Westlake Junior 900 team continued its uphill climb in the Sunday evening travel league as they took two games from the Castle Lanes Pro Shop with Steve Hargrove shooting 613 and Paul Biancalana 601.

George Xavier was back on the beam as he led the Early Fives with a 215 game and big 590 series. Westlake.

Donna Pellergrini rolled 118 pins over her average as she led the YWCA League with a high game of 201 and high series of 484. Irene Hogue threw the perfect ball as she converted the very difficult 3-7-10 split.

Pro Scout Joins Baseball Clinic

Jim Davis announced this week that Eddie Bockman, former New York Yankee and Sacramento Solon, and now scout for the Phillies, will assist him in the Daly City pitching and catching clinic.

As clinic director, Davis, assisted by his friend Bockman, will help Daly City youngsters to learn the best methods of developing good pitching and catching skills as well as secrets of the mound and battery.

The clinic is open to all interested children and will be held at Westlake Park on March 27, 28 and 29 at 4 p. m. Participants must bring their own gloves and baseballs.

Golf Basketball Contest Results

This year instead of the annual Basketball free throw contest, the Daly City Department of Recreation held a Basketball Golf Contest. This game is played on a basketball court. There are 9 points from where a player shoots. After the first shot, he follows up and keeps score on a score card similar to golf.

Contests were held on all playgrounds and the winners met at the War Memorial Community Center for the finals. Results were as follows:

Boys Senior Division

1st — Armando Aceituno, War Memorial Gym.

2nd — Mike Guglielmoni, War Memorial Gym.

Boys' Junior Division

2nd — Mike Linehan, War Memorial Gym.

The first concrete rural road was laid in 1909 in Wayne County, Mich.

Kalawao County, Hawaii, is the smallest county in the United States with only 14 square miles.

"Happy Pappa"

"How to Make Pop Proud" is the happy theme for the PTA fashion show at Little Jeff Tuesday evening, April 2. All the clothes modeled have been sewn by the PTA mothers, relatives or friends. Mothers will model their own creations, and the kids will walk proudly down the ramp wearing their favorite outfits made by mom or grandma's loving hands.

Miss Mona Baker will introduce the models and describe the fashions. The show will be held in the multi-use room at 7:30 and refreshments will be served by the second grade mothers.

SEA BOWL NEWS

Congratulations to the five Mrs. The team of our ladies who finished fifth in the B.P.-A.A. team tournament regional roll off the Westlake Bowl this last Sunday. The team members were Betsy Gardner, Pat Nurney, Bobbi Fisicaro, Mary Kay Hutchinson and Rhilda Ross. We fell sure all the bowlers are noticing the signs of the sponsors of the tournament we are holding here next month. The sponsors are the most forgotten people in bowling and we are trying to remedy this situation a little by reminding you that they, through their sponsorship of teams, individuals and tournaments, make this game the great thing it is today. It certainly should remind you that it is an easy thing to tell your sponsor how much you appreciate him and if you represent him with good sportsmanship in your bowling and as a team he will be well satisfied. Most of the complaints we hear from sponsors are those concerning a seeming lack of appreciation by the teams they sponsor.

Choice Is Wide When You Buy a Pleasure Boat

With blossoms and soft breezes reminding us that spring is here, a goodly number of Californians are now thinking of spring and summer boating and possibly about buying a boat.

Before you put down a single dollar, get clearly in mind the answers to these four questions: In what way will you be using the boat? What sort of load will it have to carry? In what kind of waterway will you be using it? Will you be leaving it in one place or moving it around the country?

The use you're going to put the boat to makes a difference. If you're going to use it for picnicking and fishing, you'd be better with the ample space for passengers, gear, and casting that the no-deck utility boat offers. If you're going to use it for pleasure, cruising or racing, you'd be better with the sport trim decks, cockpit, and remote steering of the standard runabout.

The load to be carried is important. If your boat is going to be a one- or two-man boat with little or no gear, it doesn't have to be big. If there is going to be a crowd aboard and lots of equipment, you'd better see to it that the necessary space is available.

Possibly more important than the load is the nature of the waterway you have in mind using. If it's a quiet inland waterway, you won't need too big or too rugged a boat. If it's a large lake or the open sea, you're going to have to think about bigness and ruggedness to withstand the storms that can blow up.

And how about mobility? If you're going to be leaving the boat fairly much in one place all the time, size isn't much of a problem. If, however, you're going to be taking it all around the highways, you'd better keep it small.

If you have a sturdy trailer, you can transport a sturdy boat without too much touble. If, however, it's a matter of "cartopping," better keep the weight down to below 120 pounds. You can get strong combinatons, and such metals as aluminum. Small skiffs are stable in calm waters and give you room for movement.

Canoes are highly portable and are useful in the rougher water of steams. On square-sterned models, you can attach an outboard and avoid a lot of paddling.

CARBON MONOXIDE

Tests have shown that an automobile following another closely in heavy traffic can pick up enough carbon monoxide from the exhaust of the first vehicle to have a distince physical effect upon the following driver, reports the National Automobile Club.

This is something to keep in mind if you find yourself suddenly inclined to drowsiness when driving in unduly heavy traffic.

"MEMOS" FROM YOUR Stylist

By: MR. ROBERT

The well-groomed woman should treat colors with a wary eye, favoring those kind to her hair and complexion and avoiding those which are uncomplimentary. Orange is the warmest color, but not a flattering one in general. Blue is kind to blonde and brunette alike; yellow favors the brunette, but only blondes can wear the warmer shades of brown which tend to give darker-skinned persons a washed-out appearance.

However, blue with disappointment, green with envy, or red with rage are emotions you should never experience when you entrust the care of your hair to MR. ROBERT'S SALON OF BEAUTY. From a shampoo and permanent to a tasteful tint, outstanding operators and stylists are ready to serve you at MR. ROBERT'S SALON OF BEAUTY, 198 School St. Phone WY 2-1717.

Tight Race Seen For N.P.L. Baseball

LAUNCHING — From this well executed racing dive, Terra Nova's Fromm churned his way to a very close win in the 200 yard freestyle event. The race was so close that identical times were recorded for first and second place.

NPL Swimming; a Two-Way Race

Jeffs, SSF Swim, Win

By Don Doe

Jefferson and South San Francisco unleashed their swimming teams last week and splashed Oceana and Terra Nova into dry dock, winning by scores of 78-10 and 63-31, respectively. Jefferson's class B and C mermen also destroyed their opposition, defeating the Oceana contingents 46-31 (the closest of all meets) and 40-18. The South City swimmers were, if anything, less merciful with their Terra Nova competition, with the B's winning 63-13, and the C's sweeping 51-8.

South City, boasting a 3-0 record, has survived the first round of NPL competition unscathed. In defeating the Tiger mermen, the Warriors registered several very respectable times. Mike Shelton, probably the best swimmer in the infant league, turned the 50 yard freestyle sprint in 25 seconds flat. He then took the 100 yard butterfly in 1:08 flat, a time he has bettered in previous turnouts by nearly two seconds. Versatile Jim Soales won the 100 yard backstroke in 1:12.2. The 200 yard freestyle race, won by Terra Nova's Fromm in 2:36.3 was the most exciting race of the afternoon. Over the eight lap race there was never more than a few inches between the two front runners, and the last 25 yards was swum as though they had just left the starting blocks. In spite of this tight competition, it was South City's Bruce Carso swimming on the Wariror B squad that turned in the lowest time in the 200 free. Pulling away steadily after the second lap, Carso, a sophomore, turned the eight laps in 2:30.3.

Jefferson took just about everything from hapless Oceana, losing only the 50 yard and 100 yard freestyle events, but losing them both to the same Oceana swimmer, Gates. Gates won the 50 in 28.1 and the 100 in 1:09.5. Jeff's best times were recorded in the 400 yard freestyle race, where Goodin turned a 5:38.8, and in the 200 yard freestyle relay, a 1:48 flat effort.

The sprinters that Jeff has been developing will be taken out of their anonymity provided by the relays when they meet SSF tomorrow. The question will be whether these freestylers will give Jeff the depth necessary to place strong swimmers in both the individual events as well as in the higher scoring relay races. Regardless of the outcome of tomorrow's meet, this second meeting should produce a wealth of respectable swimming records for the new league. The meet could also establish the league's first champion. But, the last clash between these teams found the Warriors the winner by a mere five points, or one first place tally. Perhaps the real question is not who has the most sprinters, but which team has improved the most.

Serra Bowl News

Steve Nagy, colorful member of the Brunswick advisory staff of champions, will appear at the Serra Bowl in a special bowling exhibition at 1 p. m. and 8 p. m. on Thursday, March 28, it was announced by Rex Golobic, proprietor.

Nagy, one of the ablest instructors in the game, is a veteran of more than 30 years in tournament competition and the type of popular champion who is never too busy to help other bowlers iron out their style of play.

As a member of the Brunswick staff, Nagy is one of 140 of the nation's top ten-pin performers who travel extensively to promote the sport through exhibitions and instruction sessions. In his appearance at Serra, the husky kegler will demonstrate a winning form that has earned him two Bowler of the Year awards and a stack of national titles.

Captain of the St. Louis Falstaffs, Steve was a pacesetter in the 1958 ABC tournament in Syracuse, N. Y. He rolled games of 244, 227 and 258 for a 729 series to lead the Falstaffs to the team title on a 3,210 total, third highest in ABC history. Nagy finished second in the individual all-evetns with 2,033, a scant 10 pins behind the winner. He later led his team to victory in the grueling BPAA national match game event, and in 1961 helped the Falstaffs to a repeat win in the ABC action.

Steve's performance in the 1952 ABC tournament was equally spectacular. Steve paired his 698 threesome with Johnny Klares' 755 for a total 1,453 pins in the doubles event to smash by 38 pins a record that had stood unchallenged for 19 years. Nagy alson won the coveted all-events title, amassing 2,065 pins, and led his Cleveland Radiart squad to the team all-events championship.

But Steve Nagy is at his best under match game pressure. He is most proud of his 1955 national match game victory that forced him first into a qualifying round roll-off, and then into a final four-game "must" situation. He exploded with a 945 series, bowling at a torrid 236 average, to sweep the set and capture the title.

Nagy holds the ten-year ABC tournament high average of 208 and has a five-year league average of 205. His top sanctioned series is 831 and he has rolled 25 300 games, including one in the 1961 World's Invitational.

Friar Fred's Hints for Better Bowling—No. 12: Never hesitate to learn by watching others. See Steve Nagy at the Serra Bowl. Time: 1 and 8 p. m. Date: Thursday, March 28.

POLISHING ALREADY PERFECT FORM — Steve Nagy, one of bowling's ambassadorial elite will be on hand for a special exhibition this Thursday at the Serra Lanes. Nagy has garnered countless awards enroute to becoming one of the nation's top bowlers.

Warriors Top Threat In Four-Way Battle

By Don Doe

This is finally that time of year when baseball replaces just about everything. Basketball, deep powder at Shasta, and AAU-NCAA squabbles are found buried on page three of the sports section, while polictical issues are relegated to little-bitty headlines. Pundits of Our National Sport fill the air with predictions that pierce the mists of the future season like so many arrows. Indeed, the whole business takes on all the less deadly aspects of an annual Agincourt.

The North Peninsula League finds unanimity mocking the predictors' esoteric ways, however. In early everybody's opinion the South City Warriors and the NPL championship go together like ham and eggs. El Camino, Jefferson and Westmoor follow in assorted order, depending, but they all follow like toast, juice, and coffee.

Thus far in pre-league competition, the NPL teams have not exactly terrorized their opposition. But that, thankfully, is not the point. Coach Brian of South City stated in his conservative estimate of the approaching NPL season that "it looked like a four team race, but you can't afford to ignore Oceana or Terra Nova. If you do they're liable to beat you real good before you can get collected." It is, Brian concluded, a four way race only on paper.

Rather surprisingly, in light of their rating, the Warriors have had defense problems in their first practice games. Cal Frosh, in best collegiate fashion, nearly eradicated South City in a 10-0 session. But the Berkeleyites earned only two out of the ten runs; the Warrior coach suggested hat giving away eight tallies was being a bit over enthusiastic. No one expects SSF to remain in this generous mood for very long, especially South San Francisco.

Their tentative lineup includes outfielders Gary Iacini, Larry Silvestri, Jeff Jones, and Sam Pretari. The infield will be manned by Neal McNevin (the only returning 300 hitter) at first, Garry Montalvo at second, Dan Crow at third, and Dave Simi at short. Catching will be Gene Delmarty, while the two most promising pitchers are Rich Wickersham and Chuck Olivera. Pitching is alleged to be South City's biggest question mark, with no real experience to be found on the roster.

Jefferson and Westmoor, both considered to be nasty people who want to win; and who often get what they want, profess to be very apprehensive of each other, and of El Camino. As a matter of fact everyone seems not overly happy about El Camino. South City says they're trouble, Jeff agrees, and Westmoor picks them as their closest rival for the role of spoilers.

As for the Rams, the only things going for them are experience, and Bruce Hix, last year's PAL batting champion. This combination does not leave rival prognosticators overjoyed. Ram Mentor Rod Losberger waxes highly enthusiastic on contemplating his 400 plus slugger; everyone else changes the subject.

Losing their first practice game, 4-0, without the services of half of their starting nine, Losberger is expecting rapid improvement. The consensus is that he'll find it, with .471 hitter Hix at third, Dan Payette at short-stop, Al Contreras at second, and Bill Casper at first.

In the outfield, Steve Schmuck, Ed Perry, and Arnie Ertola will handle right, left and center, respectively. Dave Williams, a 6-5, 220 pound soph looms as the top pitcher, last year gaining a 2.98 ERA. Senior Tito Torres, who also boasts a low ERA is slated for starting roles. They will be throwing to catcher Nick Krnich.

Jefferson's Varsity Mentor, Steve Mezzera took prompt issue with Westmoor's league standings forecast, and relegated the Rams to fifth place. The Rams' coach picked Jeff fourth. Jeff Mentor Mezzera decided on a conservative third for his team, but he doesn't believe it. Ram Coach Losberger crawled a little further out on the limb, choosing his outfit as top challengger to South City. Of course, neither coach is very convincing, in their modesty, both feeling that their team is, or should be the top contender.

Terra Nova's coach Roger Miller has not entered the game of calling the shots, but has announced his starting team. Coach Miller plans to start Marty Coil, Bill Zander, John Cook, and Jim Hawker in the infield, Joe Higgins, Jim Smith and Dan Gentry have been selected to start in the outfield, while Kervin Roberts throwing to Senior Bill Hensley will be the starting battery.

The season has had a very damp start, but the teams, according to all coaches, are beginning to jell. It's a good thing they are: between rain and a four (maybe six?) team race, they could melt. And that hasn't been predicted by anybody.

Recreation Department Award Night

Roadrunners Bombed, Retain Winless Slate

The annual Basketball Awards Night for the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade Recreation Department's Basketball leagues hosted several hundred parents and children Thursday night, March 21, in the Westmoor High School gym.

Starting off the evening was a tremendous game between the fifth grade All Stars and the fifth grade championship team, the OLM Gaels. The Gaels, undefeated during the season, had to fight all the way to overcome a determined All Star aggregation.

Larry Belfrage and Steve Kadlecik put the All Stars out in front in the first quarter. Steve Becker, Paul Glishenski and Joe Taboni evened the score at halftime. A great Gael defense held the All Stars scoreless during the entire second half. Steve Becker proved to be the hero of the day for the Gaels with the field goal that won the game for the championship Gaels.

The return of the Daly City Roadrunners was as colorful as in past years.

Roadrunner uniforms do not follow conventional patterns. For that matter, the Roadrunners do not accept any of the conventional principles of athletics, such as being in condition, fair play and good sportsmanship.

Each year they have paid the price for this failing as their perfect loss record illustrates.

In stressing individuality, the Roadrunner uniforms are more than adequate. Rat "Hero" Stewart, former Lincoln High School and Cal Poly great, played in a derby hat, tuxedo coat and Jevis. Earthquake George Pedroni wore a white sailor suit that had obviously seen Earthquake in thinner days.

Pedroni was penalized during the game for shaking the floor to distract the All Stars. Paul "The Wall" Churchwell was resplendent in a white and green striped suit of long underwear and a derby hat.

Churchwell constantly confused the All Stars by reflecting the gym nights in their eyes off his high forehead. Tom "Daredevil" Dillon, great Balboa High halfback of the 40s, showed flashes of his old athletic ability. Should he keep his nose to the conditioning grindstone, he may some day equal the talent of his son, Timmy Dillon, one of the sixth grade All Stars. Rich "Fuzzy" Brewer played the part of the villian. During play, he collided with one of the All Stars and was soundly booded by the spectators.

Bad Man Neagle, the Mad Doctor, came disguised as Ben Casey — hoping the All Stars would get out of his way thinking he was on his way to emergency surgery. No such luck—the All Stars frustrated him so badly, he will be in the psychiatric ward instead of neurosurgery this week.

Chris "Rough Tough" Rosen proved the old saying: "too many cooks spoil the broth." Rosen came dressed as a chef to "cook the All Stars' goose," but looked as if he would have been more at home in a pizza parlor. Don "Hatchet" Hackett, Knuckles Narin, Omareorge George "Irish" Ambrosio, Knuckles Narin, Omar "Dirty Guy" Grimes and the rest of the Roadrunners put a better fight this year as they came out on the short end of a 32-29 score.

It should be mentioned that the coaches that made up the Roadrunners team had to play under a handicap. One Roadrunners had to carry four croquet balls during the game, another seven rubber golf balls, four Indian clubs hampered a player. Some of the players had to wear boxing gloves and one had to wear a sock with only one armhole cut for him.

These handicaps were used against the sixth and seventh grade All Stars.

The Roadrunners met the eighth grade All Stars on equal terms, well, almost equal. After a short time, it was suggested that the All Stars assume the handicaps. All in all, a good time was had by all and the Roadrunners promise revenge next year.

This year, the absence of Jim "Deadeye" Davis from the Roadrunner lineup hurt them. Davis and his friend, Slick Nelson, rested this year in preparation for next year's contest.

UNDEFEATED SSF MERMEN — The Warriors have thus far compiled an undefeated season in the first year of North Peninsula League competition. They combined last week to defeat Terra Nova 63-31. The second round of NPL swim meets begins tomorrow, when they meet their closest rival, Jefferson.

Warrior Netters' Streak Snapped; Lose to Mills

The South San Francisco High School Tennis team suffered their first defeat of the season last Thursday to Mills High School by a 5-2 score. The only victories for the Warriors was registered by Rich Mozzini 4-6, 6-0, 6-0 and No. 1 doubles team of Carl Durham and John Ellsworth 1-5, 2-6, 6-3.

This was their first setback after nine victories. Last Monday the Warriors had won their eighth straight victory by defeating Washington 7-0. Single victories were accomplished by Escallier, Eskelsen, Louie, Mozzini, Megna and Dong. The No. 1 doubles team of Durham and Ellsworth added the final point.

Wednesday, March 20 El Camino and the Warriors tangled in a close fought match and the Warriors edged through by a 4-3 score. Warriors Vic Escallier won by 6-2, 6-4, Jim Eskelsen won 7-5, 6-4.

The Colts took the third singles and No. 1 and No. 2 doubles for their three points.

The Warriors now play the highly competitive peninsula league schools. Burlingame is encountered Monday, San Mateo Tuesday and Hillsdale Wednesday.

COLOR VALUE IN OIL

The color of an oil is of little value to the consumer for judging its value as an engine lubricant but should assist in the detection of dirt or other foreign material.

There is no known relation between color and service performance.

What Every Woman Should Know About Her Automobile

By WENDY WHEELER

Auto-Torium Feminine Driving Consultant

The Ides of March have blown by; Spring fever is in the air. No doubt about it... people everywhere have a new outlook on life. They start planning all sorts of ambitious projects . . . like Spring Cleaning! The house? Naturally. The lawn? If you can keep your husband away from the golf course long enough. The kids? Always. But the car? Why not?

The family buggy these days is "a thing of beauty" (even if Keats wouldn't agree that it was "a joy forever"),and since it is so pretty and luxurious, it's a shame NOT to give your car an annual "once-over." While it can't be done push-button style, ingenious inventors have come up with innumerable little goodies to make cleaning your car fun, efficient, and effortless . . . well, almost.

For instance, Auto-Torium Stores have this miracle-in-a-can called Krylon Degreaser. All you do is spray it on the engine or any place where there are deposits of oil and grease, then simply hose off the dirt. Presto! Clean as a whistle! You can also use Degreaser on your driveway or in the garage to clean up those messy spots. (IDEA: it might be just the perfect thing for my five year old son . . . spray it on, and guess what? That little mud ball is human after all!)

There are oodles of products for your car's Spring bath . . . nearly as many as are manufactured for people-type bathing. Auto-Torium Stores carry all of the necessities, such as sponges, cheese and chamois cloths, tire cleaners (including white wall cleaners), car wax, polish, detergents, cremes, preservative sealers, windshield washer solvent and practically anything else you can think of.

Whew! Let me catch my breath. . .

Chrome polish is a particularly handy item because of the rust caused by San Francisco fog. You will also find a variety of upholstery cleaners, and special leather, plastic and convertible top cleaners at Auto-Torium Stores. Spring time IS convertible time . . . and a handy gadget to have is a solution especially made for cleaning those clear plastic windows in the rear.

Before you turn on the hoce, one word of advice: don't try to wash your car in your Christian Dior cocktail dress! It's lots of fun to spruce up your automobile, but it's messy. You're bound to get soaking wet if you're anything like me . . . I have an outfit that I wear just for jobs like this one, and although I'll never make the Best Dressed List in it, it serves the purpose well: Old slacks, a discarded Giants sweatshirt, and tennis shoes.

I have one other secret that I'll pass on to you . . . Auto-Torium Stores sell sponges with the wax and polish right in them, and rotary head wash brushes . . . both items make car washing a simple chore.

Free copies of Wendy Wheeler's entertaining and informative booklet, "What Every Woman Should Know... About Her Car," may be obtained at any Auto-Torium Store, or by writing to her in care of this newspaper.

Maintenance Just As Important as Driving Habits

Proper maintenance of the average driver's car is just as important as good driving habits for maximum fuel economy, according to veteran economy driver Les Viland, an American Motors engineer.

Driving a 1963 Rambler American, Viland posted a record 29.18 mpg in Class G of the 1963 Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona, Beach, Florida. The 3.7-mile road course included one stop sign and a 65 mph speed zone to simulate average driving conditions.

Viland, the nation's acknowledged economy driver champion who has captured top economy honors in the Pure Oil Performance Trials in four successive years, has this advice for motorists:

In preparing a car for high economy, the careful break-in of a new car, in line with the manufacturers' recommendations, is a primary requisite for better than average economy and overall performance. Viland recommends speed under 50 mph for the first 250 miles for proper seating of engine components and running gear.

The engine should be properly tuned especially every Spring and Fall. The carburetor should be adjusted and the initial spark timing checked carefully. Tappets should be in correct adjustment.

Spark plugs should be changed every 12,000 miles. Viland pointed out that while spark plugs generally last longer than that, old or worn plugs have a marked effect on gasoline mileage.

Lubricants also play an important part in good fuel economy. Oils and greases of proper weight specified by the manufacturer should be used. Heavier lubricants add to friction, thus resulting in poorer economy.

Another important item to check is the proper operation of the thermostat. The thermostat keeps the engine coolants at the proper operating temperature. If it runs cool, fuel distribution is affected and engine oil becomes heavier. Below normal operating temperatures also cause more sludge to form in the engine oil, which results in shortened engine life.

Under-inflated tires also decreases fuel economy. Tires should be inflated and maintained at the pressure specified by the manufacturer.

Birds Nowadays Are Strictly Slow

In the days of oxcarts, points out the National Automobile Club, birds were fairly fast travelers, but in the jet age they're strictly pikers.

The champion is probably the swift. It reaches speeds of 200 miles per hour, which is fairly fast for wings made of feathers.

Most birds stay well under the 60 mile per hour limit. Duck speeds usually range from 40 to 70, geese range up to 60, and the loon can hit around 50 miles per hour.

Mourning doves are fairly fast. They've been clocked at 55 miles. Starlings hit 45 pigeons 34, and most cardinals, meadowlarks, flickers and woodpeckers about 25. The English sparrow is prefectly content with its 20-mile-an-hour flights.

"They sold gasoline, hay, coal, Buicks, Chevrolets, and many other items," our community leader of the week related in discussing M. Belli General Merchandise Company (now Gateway Motors), where she worked as bookkeeper for 20 years in the early days of Daly City. She also worked for a year at the registrar's office in the city hall.

Recently elected to her fourth term as president of the Westlake Senior Citizens Group, we salute Mrs. Beatrice Batz as our community leader of the week.

In addition to her long service for the senior citizens, Mrs. Batz is a member of the Westlake Missionary Society and devotes one day a month to visiting residents of Pilgrim Haven at Los Gatos.

A resident of Daly City, she resides at 2 San Juan avenue. Mrs. Batz has two married son, six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

WEDDING BELLS: A late summer wedding is planned by Janet Cyr and Thomas Michael Cano. Their engagement was announced at a family buffet supper hosted by Mr. and Mrs. J. Edmond Cyr of Garden Village. The bride-elect is a graduate of Westmoor High School. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hector A. Cano of Westlake, was graduated from Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco.

Donuts, donuts, donuts — chocolate ones, plain ones, whatever you fancy, and they'll be sold to you by handsome gentlemen from St. Martin's suitably attired in chef hat and apron. Among the debonair salesmen are Westlake residents Jack Kendree and Jack Kimberley. Also giving the men a helping hand is committee chairman Jo Berry, assisted by Audrey Reubenson, Gertrude Kendree and Virginia Kimberley. The date: April 6; the place: Hunts Donut Shop for the fourth annual donut sale for the benefit of St. Martin's Episcopal Church. Do plan to drop by and purchase some donuts for your family.

A musical parade of stars and tea is on the social schedule of the Catholic Daughters of America, to be held August 24 at St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park.

"How to Make 'Pop' Proud" is the intriguing title of the coming fashion show (April 2) of the Jefferson Elementary School PTA. Mrs. John Bain is chairman.

It is a world apart that little girls share with their dolls—their own special magic world of make-believe that is part of growing up, These worlds are so varied. This was brought home to us as we helped judge the entries in last Saturday's doll show sponsored by the Daly City recreation department. The dolls ranged from sophisticated glamour dolls in fur coats and matching hats to cuddley furry animals with mischievous expressions—each a prized possession of a child. There were historical dolls, dolls from other countries, roly-poly baby dolls, dolls the size of toddlers, dancers, nursery characters and many others.

Impressive too, was the contrast between dolls almost a century old and dolls of the modern miss. We could not help but think if Daly City is still holding doll shows one hundred years from hence, will some of the present entries be preserved so they could be entered.

There is something sentimental about handling down a doll from generation to generation. For instance at the show there was a tiny delicate doll that had been brought by boat around Cape Horn and passed down through the years.

Just a suggestion. If your little girl has outgrown a particularly precious doll why not tuck it away for safekeeping until you have a granddaughter to give the doll to.

The show this year, which by the way was the fourth annual one, was one of the most successful. There were over seven hundred entries. Official categories included foreign, oldest, best dressed, dolls with most complete wardrobe, handmade dolls, vocational dolls, character, and bride. A new addition this year was the multiple entry which included groups of dolls.

If your youngster didn't have a chance to participate in the show this year, do encourage her to try next year. We think such a show is an excellent idea because there are not enough activities for girls to participate in. Boys have sports but for girls there are not enough activities that offer competition. Such a show really encourages youngsters to test their ingenuity and be creative.

GS Program Change Gets Approving Nod

By BUNNY GILLESPIE

Whoever said that nothing is constant except change might have been thinking of the Girl Scout program, for since the earliest days of Juliette Low this largest of organized programs for girls of all races, religions and backgrounds has been undergoing a progression of continual enrichment and piecemeal alteration.

With change comes training and so it was that hundreds of the devoted women holding the titles of leaders, co-leaders, chairmen, organizers and consultants in the Girl Scout Councils of the Bay Area have found themselves involved with the assimilation of facts at recent specially-planned training sessions.

Four such training meetings were held in Daly City last week, and what was it all about?

Very simply, the answer is that Girl Scouting is getting a new look and a new plan for programming, the result of work started by the National Organization of the Girl Scouts of the USA back in 1954.

At that time the group commissioned the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan to make studies of adolescent girls and, subsequently, a study of the Girl Scout over-all program. Findings were reported at National board meetings in 1957 and 1958 and published in five large volumes. To share the information with the entire adult membership, according to the Leader Magazine for April, the filmstrip "Program in the '60s" was released and 68 program study institutes were held for leaders throughout this country and those abroad.

At the same time, the National Program Committee and the National Program Department perused child-development, learning-theory and curriculum design research. The results of their studies were announced and accepted by the National Girl Scout Council in 1960.

Program change kits were distributed during the next two years and training packets were developed. Co-ordinated training of adult GS members began in '62. At that time, 123 national trainers were launched, and since then the group has been sharing information at program change events held regionally.

It was Margaret Brownley, Director of Region XII, Girl Scouts of the USA, who presented the first two units of the program changes to Bay Area scout leaders two weeks ago at the Longshoreman's Memorial Auditorium in San Francisco.

But it is up to local trainers to present the remaining units of the program change as it affects adults working directly with troops.

The San Mateo County GS Council found two very personable and well-qualified trainers to present "the word" to North County leaders. They were Mrs. Helene Mori of 21 Garden Lane in Colma and Mrs. Bernice Sparks of 1104 Southgate in Daly City.

Deemed the leaders for District 1, (both also troop leaders) the duo conducted two sets of training sessions here last week. Serra Skyline and North Westlake neighborhoods met at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church on the mornings of March 18 and 20. Parkview Neighborhood personnel gathered at Jefferson High School for evening instruction on March 19 and 21.

This week Mrs. Mori and Mrs. Sparks were in San Mateo presenting information to the Shoreview, Marina and Las Pulgas Neighborhoods.

Two other local "good scouts," Mrs. Hilda Heagney, who is Parkview Neighborhood chairman, and Mrs. R. E. Kraus, who is second vice-president of the GS Council of San Mateo County, were also serving as training leaders during the past weeks, but elsewhere in the county.

Their goal was to reach as many troop leaders as possible in an attempt to insure "smooth transition" into the new program in the fall of the year.

The well-attended three-hour meetings featured filmstrips, oral presentations, open and frank discussions and coffee-breaks, all well-laced with the good-humored chatter that happens only when participants are truly intrigued and pleased with the subject at hand.

Primarily the change in program calls for one program with four age levels, based on a foundation of six elements to be carried out in troops and camps through activities related to the arts, the home and the out-of-doors. New handbooks, one for each level, have been developed and, in general, bridges have been planned between age levels so that girls might move more easily through the Girl Scouting of childhood into adult service.

A summary of essential changes, as distributed by the San Mateo Council, includes changes from three levels and the name "Intermediate Girl Scout" to four levels with the two new names "Junior Girl Scout" and "Cadette Girl Scout;" four basic membership requirements for all new girls, with re-dedication for continuing members instead of investiture of all girls at

An opportunity for children to learn basic art concepts is offered on Saturday mornings by the YWCA.

Peg Peynoyer, instructor, emphasizes basic art forms, quality and not quantity. The class does not work with hand crafts. The children produce designs, drawings and paintings using new found knowledge of color and form.

The "introductory art class" is held at the Westmoor Park Clubhouse with beginners from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.; ages 6 to 9 from 10:30 to 11:30, and ages 9 to 12 from 11:30 to 12:30. The six week course costs $5.

Creative group play classes for pre-schoolers are coordinated by Doris Fox, assisted by five teachers. This program offers an introduction to some of the things expected of small children when they enter kindergarten. Tots, ages 3 to 5, learn crafts, songs and stories, rest a bit and play games. During the six weeks course, each mother is allowed to visit once to observe the children and help with refreshments.

The fee of $5 covers the cost of craft materials. Classes are held from 10 to 11:30 a.m., Monday through Fridays at the Westlake Clubhouse, Tuesday through Thursday at the Westmoor Park Clubhouse, and on Monday at the War Memorial building.

Claire Early, dance instructor, is teaching poise, grace, and movement control to the youngsters in several dance classes. A basic dance group is offered the 3 to 5 year old on Mondays at the Westlake Clubhouse, from 2 to 2:45 p. m., followed by a second class at 2:45 to 3:30 p.m.

Learning to avoid the awkward age are the girls in the ballet class, which meets at the Westlake Clubhouse on Tuesdays, 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. for girls ages 6 to 8, and Wednesdays 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. for girls, ages 9 to 12. The fee is $5 for six weeks.

Mothers and pre-schoolers are preparing for summer fun in the YWCA swimming classes held at Larsen Pool. Instructors Ermie Hummel and Mary deWitt have vast experience in teaching children to swim.

Classes are on Fridays, 10 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., and the cost is $5 for mother and child, plus 35c pool fee each week. A YWCA medical form is required for each child.

Two other fun classes for children are hula and baton lessons. Jerry Matlock teaches hula at the War Memorial building on Mondays, beginners from 3:30 to 4:30, and intermediates from 4:15 to 5 p.m, $5 for six weeks.

Thursdays, 3:30 to 4:30 is the time set aside for baton lessons at the Westlake Clubhouse, the instructor is Clemmie Thompson. The fee is $4 for six weeks.

Call the YWCA office at PL 6-7370 for further information. Pre-registration is required and assures your child a place in the class. Without sufficient enrollment, classes must be cancelled.

Kramer-Nelson Vows Exchanged

Recent additions to the ranks of newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Austin Nelson, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert V. Kramer, 15 Mesa avenue, in San Francisco.

The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Winquist of 715 Thornhill drive, Colma.

The young couple is presently living in Pacific Grove, while Mr. Nelson is attending the U. S. Army Foreign Language School at Monterey. Upon completion of his training, the couple will live in Washington, D. C. for eight months and then be off to Korea for the two following years.

For their double-ring wedding, Karen Grace wore a white peau de soir street length dress that was fashioned with a wide neckline and a princess bodice. Her only jewelry were matched pearls brought by the bridegroom from Hong Kong. She carried a small floral arrangement of gardenias and lilies of the valley, with streamers of pearls.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Alice Smith of Salt Lake City, served as matron of honor. She wore a light blue street length dress of lace over taffeta. The bridegroom's father, Ted Winquist, served as best man.

Following the 2 p.m. ceremony, which was performed by Bishop Jensen of Berkeley, the couple greeted friends and relatives, after which the bride donned a knitted suit and departed with her spouse for a honeymoon at an undisclosed location.

For the wedding, the bride's mother, Mrs. Kramer, wore a beige chiffon and lace dress and Mrs. Winquist wore a champagne-colored brocade sheath dress. Both had corsages of cymbidium and cattaleya orchids.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are both graduates of Lincoln High School, and oriental language students. Karen is an undergraduate of the University of California and Claude is a member of UC's Class of '62. He is affiliated with the American Oriental Society, Lambda Delta Sigma, Alpha Mu Gamma and Phi Theta. During his undergraduate years at Cal, he was a student teacher of Mandarin dialect Chinese at Lincoln High, under the direction of Dr. Erwin Gordon and Philip Lum. The former Miss Kramer was a language student at Lincoln at the time and the marriage of Claude and Karen culminates a courtship that started those several years ago.

In addition, since the organization is basically and obviously feminine, the National Planning Committee has not overlooked the never-ceasing question between girls of all ages, "What shall I wear?"

Girl Scouts will no longer appear in their individual choice of any of the three intermediate or three senior uniform styles. Attractive uniforms, one for each age-level, have been devised — the new look in the new GS programming.

Student Models At SSFHS Show

One hundred fifty girls will model in a fashion show to be presented by the homemaking classes and the PTA of South San Francisco High School. It will take place at 3 p.m., April 4, in the school cafeteria.

Each girl will model a garment made by herself during the clothing semester of Homemaking.

Clothing II students will model a variety of skirts. A fully lined peach wool skirt with added touches of quality is one of the many to be featured.

A two-piece green plaid suit with a boxy jacket and a large round collar made in Clothing III will be modeled. Along with this will be a dark brown sheath with long fitted sleeves and a high neckline..

Mohair is in this year and the Clothing IV students know it. One student selected a deep aqua mohair for her raglan sleeved coat. The coat is fully lined and features beautifully made bound buttonholes.

Mrs. Thomas Crocker and Miss Gretchin Oberhauser, Home Economics teachers will write the commentary for the show. They are also teaching the girls the fine points of modeling.

The theme for the fashion show is "Easter with Color." It is open to the public with no admission charge.

The PTA will serve a tea and Mrs. Charles Davis and Mrs. Joseph Cooper will assist at the tea table.

Decorations and posters for the event are being made by the Future Homemakers of America Club.

Pacifica Nursery Visits Super Jet

A delightful trip was made to the International Air Port by the Nursery School on Thursday, March 16, under the supervision of director Elsa Rechnitzer and participating mothers. The children were thrilled with the super jet liner and the busy activities of the Air Port.

Now that Spring is near, the Nursery School plans many interesting excursions for the pre-school children. The children are now studying about spring planting and growing plants. "Carton Gardens" are beginning to function with the help of the mothers. While a close daily watch is being kept on the plants in the cartons, the children are counting the days until the plants bloom.

The Nursery School is a parent-participating organization conducted as a part of the adult education of Jefferson Union High School district. It is a non-profit, nonsectarian organization that is managed by an executive board elected by all members who have children enrolled.

The school is open to children from two years and nine months to kindergarten age. Children attend a three to five day program, consisting of painting, puzzles, music, stories, and outdoor play.

The tuition is $10 for a two or three day week and $12 for a five day week. School is held at the First Baptist Church building in Pacific Manor from 9 to 12 daily.

For further information regarding the school, contact membership chairman, Jane Stillman, EL 9-1036.

A. Lincoln Classes Be to Little Farm

Two classes of children, seventy strong, from kindergarten, Abraham Lincoln Elementary School, went on a trip to the Academy of Science and the Little Farm in Golden Gate Park on Tuesday, March 12.

After touring the wild animal exhibits at the Academy, the classes went to the Farm where they watched the antics of goats, rabbits, chickens, ducks and guinea pigs. Many questions were asked and comparisons made with the pictures of farm animals the class is studying in its Social Studies Unit this month.

"When do we eat?" was the popular question when the farm observation began to pall. A picnic lunch was consumed on the grassy slopes above the farm, followed by an exercise period in the warm sunshine.

Where To Save—

President Kennedy's "minimum necessary" budget contains a number of items which should yield some fat parings. A recent article in Fortune Magazine reminds us of one item in particular that ought to be given a thorough review by Congress, the appropriation for the Rural Electrification Administration.

REA was organized during the 1930's to bring electricity to the nation's farms. It did a fine job as everyone will agree. Today, though, 98 per cent of the nation's farms are electrified, and you'd think that this would be one Federal department that had about worked itself out of a job. Unfortunately, this almost never happens. As Fortune Magazine points out in its article, "There's No Stopping REA—Or Is There?" the "co-ops financed by REA have grown into a nationwide, $4 billion electric group increasingly engaged in aggressive, government-subsidized competition with investor-owned electric companies. Five out of six of the co-ops' new member customers in recent years have been industrial, commercial, and non-farm residential customers."

While investor-companies must pay 24 cents in taxes out of every dollar taken in, REA co-ops are exempt from Federal taxation and pay little in the way of state and local taxes. What's more, they can borrow money from Uncle Sam at a two percent interest rate for a period of 35 years and pay nothing back for five years. The Federal government has to pay about four percent for the money it borrows. We, as taxpayers, make up the difference.

The loans which REA is making today include funds for giant generating plants and for advances to co-ops to finance such items as lumber plants, a textile mill, a gravel-crushing plant —even snow-making equipment for a ski resort.

Senator A. Willis Robertson has the right idea. He said recently with reference to REA that, "The budget for fiscal 1964 proposes funds for loan programs which are unneeded and competitive with private lenders." Of the $495 million sought by REA for 1964, the Senator added, "Without specifying the amount to be cut from these requested funds, I am certain that a sizeable reduction can be achieved if such spending is held to the proper purpose of REA. To be sure, we should do everything necessary to extend services to farmers under this long accepted program. But the steady shift of REA activity into direct competition with industrial, commercial and urban facilities is patently unneeded and unwarranted, and it should be halted."

The View From ...Behind the Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

RUN OF THE MILL . . .

The day watch platoon convenes and deliberates, and the Sergeant inspects the troops before they adjourn to the street. The midnight people look forward to reporting off, although some of them are still out in the street among the citizenry.

The Detectives report to their office and mill around trying to get into the mood to go to work. Some of the motorcycles are on the street, making motorists unhappy.

The administrators administrate and the clerks begin to do things clerical. A regular office-business-work day has started, if you don't count the efforts of the twenty-four hour all night everyday street patrol.

DAY'S WORK. . .

Sergeant Murray and Patrolman Guzman are talking to a citizen. The citizen is angry, and rages at the wrongs done him by a neighbor. The officers murmur soothing things, but the man will not be placated.

Finally, the Sergeant levels with the citizen. Sure, you can legally buy a gun, he says. Of course, you can keep the gun, he agrees. Tentatively, this — yes, your neighbor might have done you wrong.

Then: "Mister, if you buy a gun and shoot your neighbor, you are going to wind up in the gas chamber, and that's all there is to it. Now, we advise you not to do it. Let's explore the matter further, what do you say?"

These officers are tired after all night, and want to report off duty—and they will, after they placate the citizen. Just now, this is taking a little time. In the meantime other officers are working on other matters.

PHONE CALL . . .

Sergeant Terry, in the Detective Division office, is talking on the telephone. He is listening to a threat to kill him. He tells the party to call back later when sober, and that he is yet alive after other threats over the years. He turns back to his paper shuffling. "Sure need a clerk in this office," he observes.

Tomorrow, the party will call back and apologize, and maybe even offer information concerning a criminal conspiracy situation.

APPLICATIONS . . .

Sergeant Sundermann has turned out his patrol platoon, and adjourns to a business office desk. He, too, peruses paper. He is checking business license applications. His routine is to send for criminal records of all applicants.

He finds that an applicant was once convicted of bookmaking. The man is a respectable businessman now, apparently, and probably his application for a city business license will be favorably considered.

The police are very narrow minded about gambling, though, for it leads to newspaper innuendos concerning payoffs and collusion and the like. They frown on bookmaking, and make it a policy to visit and admonish applicants of this ilk.

The Sergeant writes his report, and routes his copies appropriately. The applicant will get his business license, all right; he will also be visited by a couple of politely inquiring detectives.

WORKADAY . . .

Another Detective goes through his mail, and reads the missive from the FBI Laboratory. They have examined the handwriting specimens, and conclude that the suicide note was, in fact, written by the woman who died.

This last lingering doubt cleared from the Detective's suspicious mind, he prepares his final report. He will clear out the death as a suicide, and he remembers that the beatman was right in the first analysis.

Patrolman Welsh, in the front office, talks into the radio microphone and dispatches a radio car to a bank. One of the banks did not properly test the alarm at the right time, and the beatman is sent to the probable dry run, possible holdup.

Sergeant Murray and Patrolman Guzman report off, having convinced their citizen. They get squared away in the mean little urinal studded locker room, and they comment of the pressing need for a new, adequate police station.

Their comments are very direct, and will not be quoted here.

Affairs Of State

By Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO — At long last, Governor Edmund G. Brown's scheme to increase state revenue for a year, without increasing taxes, by making the people pay an almost double income tax beginning July 1, 1964, is before the legislature in the form of bills by Assemblyman Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland.

Petris introduced the measures in the guise of "tax reforms" following a special message to the legislature by the governor, the substance of which is that the administration can't balance the 1964-65 fiscal year budget without either withholding or new or increased taxes.

Adoption of the withholding tax at this session of the legislature would not only give the governor a "double-shot" income beginning July 1, 1964, but also would serve to fool the public into believing that the Democratic administration had accomplished something really constructive, just prior to the presidential elections in 1964.

And this, undoubtedly, is the real purpose behind the attempt to jettison the tax-paying public out of a year and three-quarter's taxes in the short space of a year.

While nothing is absolutely certain in Sacramento, it is almost a foregone conclusion that the Petris income tax withholding measures never will reach his desk for signature. The measures may clear the assembly, but they are scheduled to run into snags in the senate. One prominent Democratic senator, who normally supports the governor's program, said he does not even expect the proposed withholding tax to get out of senate committee. By holding the bills in committee, the Democratic supporters of the governor, who believe double withholding solves no problems, would be spared the embarassment of voting on the issue, and as of now, this is the program.

One phase of the Petris bills may be enacted into law. This is the bill, AB 1946, which would revoke the privilege of paying taxes in installments, following the declarations of tax, by banks and corporations.

There does not appear to be much opposition to this measure, in view of the fact that federal taxes are required to be paid on declaration.

Meanwhile, there appears to be a general opinion that eventually, California will go to a withholding tax system for the payment of state income taxes. Although this appears inevitable eventually, there appears to be no support for the theory expressed in the present bills that it is necessary to not only pay a year's taxes, but also to withhold three-quarters of a year's at the same time.

It is pointed out that such a law in California would entirely negate any benefits the state might receive economically, should Congress decrease the federal income tax. Although Congress has not acted on this proposal, the state is banking on reductions being put into effect, and the administration is standing ready to pick up the savings, plus, for the benefit of the state's general fund.

THE SACRAMENTO SCENE

Gov. Edmund G. Brown said aa combination of successive combination of successive drought years, accumulated dead fuels and ever increasing use of forests by the public has caused a fire potential during the coming season from six to 100 times more serious than anything experienced in the past 30 years.

Brown made the statement in asking congress for a $625,000 appropriation for forest fire protection in southern California for this year. The request was made in a telegram to the chairman of the house appropriations subcommittee.

SACRAMENTO — Assemblyman George W. Milias, R-Gilroy, has introduced a bill to curb unreliable and harmful psychological tests being used in many schools—often given without the consent or knowledge of parents.

"I have made some fairly thorough research on this subject," Milias said, "including a conference with Dr. Max Rafferty, the state superintendent of public instruction, and completely agree with him that a large number of these tests can only be termed as 'sick.'

"They pry into children's innermost thoughts, force and teach them to tattle on their parents," he said. "They brainwash them to change their beliefs and feelings. In fact, they violate the Fifth Amendment by compelling the student to incriminate himself by providing evidence that may be used against him."

Milias said some of the questions which are asked the children include: "I don't like my home;" "My mother makes fun of me;" "My home is too dirty." requiring a yes or no. Another question, he said: "Which is worse (1) spitting on the Bible, or (2) spitting on the American Flag?"

SACRAMENTO — Assemblyman John F. Foran, D-San Francisco, has introduced a bill in the assembly which would make it a felony to steal money from a parking meter.

Under existing law, any theft of less than $250 is a misdemeanor. However, Foran said the law was unrealistic because of the nature of parking meter thefts. He said the expense to cities arises not only from the actual theft but from damage done to the meters and the need to replace them. Foran said San Francisco lost $20,918 from such thefts during 1962.

Something for Everyone

by Samuel Chandler

Now and then a memoir is published that demonstrates that public life is no place for weaklings. "Crossfire," by Ezra Taft Benson, is such a book.

Here is a story of a man who became secretary of agriculture because he desired to serve his country. Eight years later when he left Washington, he spoke like a pessimist: "These proposals (Kennedy's farm program) are not only fantastic, they are a nightmare . . . they constituted a one-way ticket to disaster . . . that is precisely what I said in the few speeches and interviews I gave."

In 1952, while Mr. Benson waited for his official appointment to President Eisenhower's cabinet, he wrote: "Why give up, even for a time, the active work of my church that I found so spiritually rewarding." Since returning to his church job, he has crossed the country in the interests of disquieting ultra-conservative politics.

"Crossfire" is the story of a struggle within a man who wanted to love everyone but was sorely tempted to hate his enemies. After a congressional hearing, he wrote with emphasis: "We are all our Father's Children and as such we must love all men. I think I do. But at times, I love some more than others."

In a letter to Richard Nixon, he flays the Democrats with horrible words. Marxian, Keknsian, the creators of a sordid mess, ets. Yet, this same man told Khrushchev and the Russians face to face, "Be not afraid — keep this commandment. Love one another. Love all mankind. Truth will endure. Time is on the side of truth."

"Crossfire" contains the thoughts of Ezra Taft Benson. It is great as he is great; shallow where he is shallow. It is not good history nor literature — but memoirs of men like Mr. Benson are significant. They show the character of the voters of America life that is quite unknown to us, "at home." They demonstrate that strong religious faith and tough mental fibre are excellent tools to take into the jungle of public life.

Riordan Club to Meet on April 9

On Tuesday evening, April 9, at 8 p.m., Riordan Guild will hold its meeting.

The members of the Speech Club at Riordan High School under the direction of Brother Robert McGuire will speak to the group. This promises to be an entertaining evening since two of the members have qualified for the finals of the National Speech Tournament to be held in Houston, Texas later this spring.

A report of the Nominating Committee will be presented to the membership announcing the election of officers for the coming year.

Urge Improvement in County Trail System

San Mateo County's present system of hiking and riding trails can be vastly improved and expanded if the State legislature makes some changes in the law governing the Statewide system.

This was the view expressed by George M. Dean of Hillsborough at a meeting last week of the San Mateo County Hiking and Riding Trails Committee at the Courthouse in Redwood City.

Dean newly-appointed chairman of the Committee, called for widespread support of a bill which would give the State Department of Parks and Recreation the right of eminent domain to obtain trail rights of way. Such a bill will soon be considered by legislature, Dean said.

The 26-member County Trails Committee unanimously endorsed the legislative proposal. Committee membership includes representatives of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Sierra Club, the County Horsemen's Association, and other groups interested in hiking and riding facilities.

Dean said the bill would repeal a section of the State Resources Code which prevents the State Park Department from exercising the right of eminent domain. He blamed this lack of power as the main factor in the lagging State trails program. He said the program's progress has been disappointing in spite of the fact that 18 years have passed and nearly $800,000 spent since the State authorized a 3,000-mile Statewide network.

He pointed out that 700 of the 1,000 miles so far completed in the system is located in the five counties adjacent to Los Angeles. San Mateo County has 28 miles of State trails, located for the most part on the San Francisco watershed and game preserve and in Huddart Park.

"We need legislation to protect what we already have and to expand the network as it was originally planned," Dean said. "We're going all out to add about 20 miles of trails in this County and we plan to help Santa Clara County get their program started."

The County Trails Committee also decided to map the County's present trail system and to build a bridge on the State trail where it crosses McGarvey Creek in Huddart Park.

Members of four subcommittees were appointed. Chairman of the committees are: E. B. (Dane) Sorenson, Woodside, public information; J. K. Dooling, Jr., San Francisco, legal; Ray Loomis, Woodside, County trails, and Charles Scull, Palo Alto, State trails.

Navy Mothers Will Meet on April 3 at War Memorial Bldg.

San Francisco Navy Mothers Club No. 202 will hold their regular Business Meeting and Election of Officers on Wednesday, April 3, at the Veterans Memorial Building, Van Ness Avenue at 8 p.m. Commander Pauline Perfetto will preside. Plans for installation will be discussed and made.

Tuesday, April 16, there will be a Benefit Game and Luncheon at 224 Burrows Street from 12:30 to 3 p.m. Attendance at these games helps a lot to bring a little sunshine and happiness for these boys and girls who are patients in the Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland and The Public Health Hospital (for Coast Guards) by the purchasing of bedside radios from the monies derived from these games.

Wednesday, April 17, at 8 p.m. a social meeting at Veterans Memorial Building, Van Ness Avenue. Refreshments will be served after the meeting to celebrate the birthdays of members in April.

Jenny Is Waiting

Jenny is a soft-spoken, shy American Chinese girl who badly wants and needs a family of her own. Although she is 17 years old, she looks and acts like a much younger child. If you would like to provide a foster home for this lonely youngster, please call JACKIE - WA 1-0665. All boarding expenses are paid.

EDYTHE BIELENBERG, president of the McKinley PTA is a candidate for the San Mateo County Board of Education. Mrs. Bielenberg, wife of Richard Bielenberg, resides at 2520-A Graceland avenue, San Carlos, and Will be a candidate against Mrs. Florence M. Cadigan of Redwood City.

Goodwin Aboard New Destroyer

Carlos D. Goodwin, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy J. Goodwin of 623 Miller ave., Pacifica, Calif., is serving aboard the destroyer USS Collett, which celebrated its first anniversary in the Far East on Feb. 15.

During the past year, the Collett has operated as a unit of the Seventh Fleet's anti-submarine warfare team, performing patrol and escort duties in the Formosa strait.

Student to see Art Show

Vista Mar Fourth and Fifth Grade boys and girls are eagerly awaiting their educational trips to view the Youth Art Exhibit at the Daly City Community Memorial Center.

Mrs. Burney's and Mrs. Oberlander's fourth grade classes will attend the exhibit on Wednesday, March 27th. Mrs. Lanthier's and Mrs. Christgau's fifth grade classes and Mrs. Friedman's fourth/fifth grade class will go on Thursday, March 28.

Numerous pictorial and craft selections from Vista Mar classes are displayed in the exhibit, which includes art entries from each elementary school in Daly City.

Stimulating ideas for future art projects as well as appreciation of art achievement is gained by the students through evaluation of this visual experience.

Dr. Wallace Beatty, professor at San Francisco State College, has five students working at Vista Mar School, observing in various classrooms. These students are prospective teachers and have elected to observe in schools rather than other areas.

Although unable to engage in academic work with the class, they do work with small groups in remedial and enrichment areas, as well as engaging in other tasks correlated with working with children in terms of supervision, preparation of worksheets prepared by the teacher, and other classroom tasks.

The students working with resident teachers are: Sandra Horn with Mrs. Jeane Oberlander, 4th grade; Steve Marcuse with Mrs. Angeline Friedman, 4/5th grade; Lloyd Miller in Miss Margaret Dwyer's, 3rd grade; Howard Robbins with Mrs. Frances Lanthier's, 5th grade and Robert Stoker with Mrs. Peggy Christgau, 5th grade.

Third grade teachers of the Jefferson Elementary School District visited Miss Margaret Dwyer's classroom to see the room environment created to correlate with the social studies unit, "The Greater Bay Area."

Third graders in Miss Dwyer's class are involved in a pilot program of learning, teaching, and evaluating this new unit.

Miss Dwyer spoke to the group about appropriate activities undertaken by the class to facilitate learning of geographic and historic facts about this region. Much information has been gained through class correspondence with various counties of the Bay Area and through talks given to the class by resource people in the area.

A daily log of activities, written by students was duplicated and bound in an attractive folder, which had been originally illustrated by students Cindy Barringer, Janice Collins, and Rhonda Gernetti.

(b) The acquisition of all lands and easements and the construction of all improvements auxiliary to any of the above which may be necessary to complete the same.

All of said work and improvements are to be constructed at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes, dimensions and materials, and at the lines, grades and elevations shown and delineated on the plans, profiles and specifications preliminarily approved therefor by the Board of Supervisors of said County on file for public inspection in the office of the County Clerk.

Notice is hereby given of the fact that in many cases said work and improvements will bring the finished work to a grade different from that formerly existing, and that to said extent said grades are hereby changed and that said work will be done to said changed grades.

Said contemplated acquisitions and improvements, in the opinion of said Board, are of more than local or ordinary public benefit, and the costs and expenses thereof are made chargeable upon an assessment district, the exterior boundaries of which district are the composite and consolidated area shown on the map thereof on file in the office of the County Clerk to which reference is hereby made for further particulars.

The estimated cost of said project is $59,915.55, of which the County will contribute $52,531.36, leaving $7,384.19 to be assessed.

Notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments, and bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum, will be issued hereunder in the manner provided by Division 7 of the Streets and Highways Code, the improvement Act of 1911, and the last installment of such bonds shall mature not to exceed fourteen (14) years from the second day of January next succeeding the next September 1st following their date. Said bonds shall be made payable to bearer and provide a premium of 5% of the unpaid principal thereof on call.

The descriptions of the acquisitions and improvements and the termini of the work contained in the Resolution of Preliminary Determination and of Intention are general in nature. All items of work do not necessarily extend for the full length of the description thereof. The plans and profiles of the works and maps and descriptions as contained in the Engineer's report, shall be controlling as to the correct and detailed description thereof.

Except as herein otherwise provided for the issuance of bonds, said work shall be done pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913.

Reference is hereby made to proceedings had pursuant to Division 4 of the Streets and Highways Code, all on file in the office of the County Clerk.

Notice is further given that the County Engineer pursuant to said Act and said Resolution of Preliminary Determination and

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that Tuesday, the 23rd day of April, 1963, at the hour of 2:30 o'clock P. ## Class Study Trip at Penney's Dept. Store

Mrs. Sherins' second and third grade class at Thomas Edison School, took a study trip to Penny's Department Store, in the Westlake Shopping Center. This study trip was taken in conjunction with their study of clothing. Mr. Bauer and Mr. Swanson, representatives of Penny's Westlake Store took the class on a tour of the building and explained the organization of a department store.

The various selling departments were visited as well as the stock room, the unloading area, the ticketing department, the sign printing department and the business offices. The group saw many types of cloth in the yardage department and later saw some of the same fabrics made up in ready-to-wear clothing.

The machines which help the store to function were of particular interest. The mechanics of the cash registers, price-tag printing machines and machines which measure yardage were explained by Mr. Bauer and Mr. Swanson.

The class plans to write stories and make a booklet about their trip.

98 Per Cent on Scout Cookie Sale

Girl Scout cookie time is here and already 98% of the quota for the Daly City-Colma area has been sold. According to Mr. R. E. Kraus, Products Sales Chairman for the Girl Scout Council of San Mateo, cookie sales by the Girl Scout Council of San Mateo, cookie sales by the Girl Scouts are going so well that he has had to re-order three times.

The deliciously delectable Assorted Confections at $1 per box have gone over big. This one pound box of fancy cookies was introduced for the first time this year. They are made for the Girl Scouts by Mother's Cake & Cookie Co. The mints, sandwiches, and Danish Mix are sold for .50c per box.

The profits earned from the sale of these cookies will go towards expenses of running three permanent Girl Scout camps. The money given by the United Bay Area Crusade does defray a major portion of Girl Scout expenses, however, help is needed to augment operational expenses. So, help your Girl Scouts when they come to your door. Buy a box of cookies.

Dolwig Urges Bill To Limit Liquor Near Colleges

A bill has been introduced by Senator Richard J. Dolwig, San Mateo County, which would repeal the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control's authority to issue on-sale liquor licenses to bona fide public eating places near certain universities and other institutions.

Senator Dolwig said, "Relaxation of this law in 1959 has proven not to be in the best interest of our universities or the students who attend them. The law is ambiguous, and has been misinterpreted by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control."

Annuals in Tubs

With the outdoor living season approaching once again, give some thought to planting colorful annuals in tubs or planter boxes for display on terrace and deck. Some good choices would be petunias, lobelia, violas, and alyssum. All are easy and all will mass in cramped quarters such as planter boxes to make a good display says the California Association of Nurserymen.

James Denham PTA

The regular meeting of the James Denman Junior High PTA will be April 4, at 1 p.m. in the auditorium. There will be a panel discussion by the school. The Persident Mrs. Elden Currie and her new board will preside.

Sunday School Stressed

The importance of the Sunday Church School has been stressed by many important people in the government of our nation today.

Westside Baptist Church believes that the 9:45 a.m. Sunday Church School Hour is one of the most important hours of the week.

Because of its importance, ten classes are provided each Sunday morning, for all age groups, nursery through adult. Also during this Church School Hour, the Pastor is conducting a Membership Class for Junior age boys and girls who are interested in knowing what church membership means, Baptist doctrine, and what are the responsibilities of a church member.

"Conversion On A Cross," has been chosen as the topic of the Morning Worship Hour message by the Pastor, A. David Donnelly. There will be special music provided for this service, and also a Primary Church for boys and girls four years of age up through the third grade in school is held during the preaching portion of the service. A nursery is also provided.

Youth speaks at the 6:15 p.m. Conference Youth Fellowship Hour, at Westside Baptist Church. Three groups meet each Sunday evening, and opportunity is given for them to present programs, and to lead meetings. Jet-Cadets is the program provided for the Junior age boys and girls, and then Junior and Senior High Youth Fellowship groups meet separately for their informative and thought provoking programs.

"Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" This is the question that will be asked, at the Evening Gospel Hour at 7 p.m., when the Pastor speaks on the topic, "Faces About the Cross." The service begins with the singing of hymns and choruses, this evening centering around the theme of the Cross and the death of Christ.

Monday evening, April 1st, at 7:30 p.m., the Deacon Board of the church meets at the home of the chairman of the board, James Besser, 500 Del Monte Avenue, South San Francisco. A special feature of this evening's meeting will be the presence of a representative of the Life Investment Forward Thrust program of the Baptist General Conference. A pastor of one of the churches of the Midwest Conference, Bill Hadeen, will be meeting with the board, and any other interested persons of the church, as he will interpret the program of LIFE, and how this program may be implemented in a church such as Westside Baptist Church. Following this, the Board will meet to conduct their monthly business.

Thursday noon, March 28th, the Westside Baptist Missionary Society women will be the guests of the Fairway Park Missionary Society, 3122 Medinah Street, Hayward, California. The women will have an opportunity to get better acquainted, and then hear two of the ladies of Westside, Mrs. Alice Sturdevant, and Mrs. Alton Swedberg, give a brief history of the church at Westside, and what its progress has been during the first year it has been organized as a regular Baptist Church.

Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m., Mr. Alton Swedberg, Sunday Church School Superintendent, leads in the Leadership Training Course class, "How To Teach The Word Of God." This class is held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., at the Clair Sturdevant home, 111 Adrian Avenue, South San Francisco.

The Mid-week Prayer and Bible Study Hour meets Wednesday evening, March 27th at 7:45 p.m. at the parsonage, 232 Mansifeld Drive, South San Francisco. The pastor continues in the study of the Evangelism of Jesus, taking incidence from the Word of God, of the personal evangelism of Jesus.

Lake Merced Church of Christ Opens on Brotherhood Way

The Lake Merced Church of Christ will officially open its doors Sunday afternoon, March 31st at 2 p.m. The public is invited to the Dedication Ceremonies to be followed by a tour of the buildings and open house all afternoon.

This is the first of several planned buildings along Brotherhood Way to complete construction.

Six years ago the City of San Francisco sold properties along old Stanley Drive to various church and fraternal groups. The name of Stanley Drive was then changed to Brotherhood Way as a symbol of the spirit of fellowshinp and brotherhood indicated by this community of benevolent groups.

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church is presently under construction at the west end of the boulevard and Temple Judea recently held its ground breaking ceremonies at the eastern end of the properties. Besides these and the Church of Christ, the Richmond Masonic Lodge and the Jewish Community Centers also own property along the way.

The Lake Merced Church of Christ moved from 3459 - 17th Street in the Mission District to its present location. Three buildings, including a sanctuary, an administration building and an educational building with fellowship hall, have been constructed at an estimated cost of $300,000. The sanctuary will seat 710. Two acres adjoining the buildings are paved for parking. Future plans call for a complete landscaping of the property and construction of two more educational wings.

Worship services will be held from this time on at 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. each Sunday and 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays with classes at other scheduled times. Children's classes and classes for all ages are held each Sunday at 9:45 a.m. and Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to any and all services and classes.

In addition to the Dedication service a special series of Bible Lectures entitled "The Fruits of the Spirit" will begin on Sunday March 31st. Carl Mitchell, Guidance Counsellor and Minister from Sun Valley, California, will be the speaker. Mr. Mitchell was a missionary in Italy for eight years and is a graduate of the University of Florence. He will speak each week day evening at 7:30 p.m. through Friday, April 5th..

D. Webster Class Visits S. F. Mayor, Superior Court

Daniel Webster's fifth graders taught by Tom Notaro took a field trip to San Francisco Civic Center which they felt topped all other trips. In connection with the Social Studies unit and the study of Civic Government the thirty-five children visited City Hall, the Main Library, the Veteran's Memorial Building and the California Pioneer Foundation Display. Forty-five minutes of the four-hour trip were spent in Judge Peery's Superior Court where an accident case was being tried. The entire class then was taken on a personal tour of Mayor Christopher's office. The Key to the City was shown to them and class president Ed Nessell was allowed to sit in the mayor's chair. Afterward all the children went out on the mayor's private viewing balcony.

The children thought it was most exciting, besides giving them much information for their school subjects.

They enjoyed the beauty of the mayor's office and were surprised to learn how many San Francisco streets are named after former mayors as made known to them by the pictures on the walls.

In the courtroom, they were impressed by the way the judge presided, the lawyers argued, and evidence was given. "It's a lot different from the courts on television," some of them observed.

Another pointed remark expressed the impresison on the group. "I never thought I'd ever be in the mayor's office."

Mrs. Elario's second grade class from Daniel Webster School went to the Pacific Telephone Company's office in Daly City recently.

They were intrigued by the automatic dial equipment, as well as the information floor, long distance and regular operator's floor, the training room, cafeteria, and the service department. One surprise for them was the efficiency of the small number of telephone operators in the room who handle between 9,000 and 10,000 calls per day.

Parents accompanying them were Mrs. McCroskey and Mrs. Ypsilantis.

Abraham Lincoln Dental Health

Recently, Mrs. Arlene Byers' First Grade Class, Abraham Lincoln Elementary School, presented a play as the culmination of their unit on Dental Health. The multi-use room was crowded with class parents and children from the other First Grades, come to witness the enthusiasm with which these students sought to convey in dramatization the important facts they had learned from their Social Studies activities.

The play opened in the office of Dr. Brown, dental surgeon, played by Keith Dacosta. A patient, Matt Mayhew, was having his dental check-up, while a mother, Debbie Jones, and her five children—Cathy Bovero, Beth Sundberg, Arlynn Ferguson, Karla Bolanos and Sandy Lueder—were awaiting their turns. The mother told her daughters a story about having strong, healthy teeth—and while she was, children representing the three important "musts" for healthy teeth appeared on the stage.

First to enter was Susan Crosbie, bearing a sign which read "Eat Good Food." She was followed by an apple, Mark Garcie; a stalk of celery, Larry D'Elia; a carrot, Diane Leathley, and a quart of milk, Bill Edwards. The "foods" performed a creative dance. The next "must" to enter was Kenny Bacon, bearing a sign which read "See the Dentist" and Mario Paoloni who recited a poem "The Dentist." The third sign, which read "Brush your Teeth" was carried by Suzanne Trueb. She was followed by the Dental Hygienist, Pamela Gillis, who demonstrated the technique of proper brushing with a large scale set of teeth and a huge toothbrush. The act ended with all of the children singing "Brush your teeth up and down."

The second act took place with all of the children on stage. John Parker, acting as announcer, introduced a puppet show, performed by Robert Rebolini, Rickey Paul, Kathleen Schmidt, Kenny Bacon and Jim Riegal. Miss Hendra Arellanes, student teacher, then took over the class, asking "What do our teeth do for us?" Science demonstrations were presented by Bobby Meyers, Nancy Herfield, Ronald Ramirez, Jo Ann Tiernan, Jim Grant and Jimmy Greene.

The finale of the play was the appearance of the "toothbrush"—Terry Hunt; "toothpaste" — Mario Paoloni; "toothbrushers"—Diana Sindona, Susan Crosbie and John Butorac; and "Mr. Tooth Decay"—Marck Casey, while the chorus sang "Up-Down."

Brownie Troop 43 News Briefs

First cook-out was a huge success. It was held at the Zoo on Monday, March 11.

The second grade girls learned to build a fire, cook camper's stew and "snow on the mountain" under the leadership of Mrs. Shirley Pappas and Mrs. Jean Proctor. The girls also had lots of fun climbing trees, learning to tie a square knot and finding birds nests.

The girls in Troop 43 are Pam Proctor, Kim Pappas, Colette Cussary, Susie Jeppson, Felicity Bensch, Laura Biagini, Colleen Nolan, Karen Fleischer, Betty Randal, Debbie Cristofani and Emely Baraona.

The Catholic Girls of Brownie Troop 43 attended 9 o'clock Mass at Our Lady of Mercy Church along with other Brownie and Girl Scouts from the Cabrillo neighborhood. Breakfast followed in the banquet room of the Westlake Bowl. There were approximately 115 girls and leaders present.

Everybody joined in singing Girl Scout songs which were led by a senior Girl Scout. Brownies of Troop 43 present were Colette Cussary, Laura Biagini, Debbie Cristofani, Emely Baraona, Betty Sue Randal, Karen Fleischer, Pam Proctor, and Leader Jean Proctor.

TEEN NEWS

OCEANA HIGH SCHOOL French teacher, Mrs. Elaine Cartner, demonstrates to one of her French classes the correct pronunciation of key phrases as part of the Pacifica High School's experimental use of closed-circuit television.

Principal Appointed To State Committee

"Students, teachers, and parents will benefit from the more efficient methods of data processing," stated Mr. Robert Keropian, principal of El Camino High School, in explaining the three year research and development study in data processing scheduled for completion in June, 1965.

Under a research grant from the United States Office of Education and the California State Department of Education, Mr. Keropian is working with five educators and two specialists in computers to handle scheduling and registration in secondary schools.

All three councils met at the Westlake Park Clubhouse last Friday night for their initial meetings which was followed by a short dance and refreshment period. With the organization of these councils, this junior high teen club program sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department has completed the initial development in the youth activities area.

Dance Band Theme Lacks a Name

Westmoor High School's last rally brought into the limelight its own composer, junior Mel Ellison.

The composition, Mel's first, has been proposed to be the W.H.S. dance band theme, and now lacks only a name.

Mel started studying the saxaphone as a freshman, and for two years has been a member of the jazz band. Working not only as an instrumentalist, but also as a conductor, he demonstrated his dual talents at the Riordan High Music Festival.

On Dean's List at Univ. of Cincinnati

In recognition of outstanding academic achievement, students who have been named to the dean's lists at the University of Cincinnati were announced by University president Dr. Walter C. Langsam. They include:

John L. Pothier, 150 Coronado avenue, Daly City, a student in the College of Engineering.

History Class Goes Athletic, As It Were

As if in preparation for the Ram's first ball game in April, Westmoor Hilltoppers of Mr. Richard McCormac's U. S. history classes have taken to the diamond, but with a purely academic intent: to learn American history through what is perhaps America's most popular sport, baseball.

Initiated only two weeks ago, the indoor sport calls for division of the class into two teams, both of which have been "coached" by Mr. McCormac, of course. After being thrown a history question by one of the opposing team, a player at bat has but one chance to make good before he strikes out, the practice improving his average for the "big game" in April, the final exam.

After each team has had a chance at bat and all points are tallied, the winner is announced, for, while a batter of Mantle's repute receives no monetary compensation, he does receive something nearly as valuable—a reduction or cancellation of the night's homework assignment.

School Work Program at S. S. F.

Linda Barry, high school senior, is one of the students taking South San Francisco High School's experimental distributive education course. Under this program, Linda combines her school schedule and works daily.

Linda's first job under the program was in a dress shop in San Bruno. During her employment there, she had the unique experience of managing it for one week.

Linda now works as a salesgirl at Dairy Belle Freeze on El Camino Real in South San Francisco. She works at the counter and in the kitchen. She works a minimum of 28 hours on weekends and a maximum of 4 hours on school days.

WHICH ONE is the real Nellie Phelps? The one on the right, of course. Saleslady Ann Myers (left) helps the owner of NELL'S FASHIONS adjust the Koret of California suit on the mannequin. Also featured at NELL'S are Meo of California dresses and Elegant Miss of California.

Westmoorites Will Attend Scholar Convo

Twenty - one California Scholarship Federation members will represent Westmoor High School at the annual C. S. F. Central Regional Conference April 6.

The Westmoorites plan to partake in the day's activities by stating their opinions concerning particular aspects of education while participating in discussion groups. In addition, a talk will be given by a noted educational authority, and lunch will be served to the visiting scholars.

Highlighting the day's events will be the presentation of the Seymour Scholarships to the boy and girl chosen as most outstanding students in the central region of California, of which Westmoor is a part. Candidates from Westmoor's C.S.F. entered in the competition for these scholarships are seniors Ann Irby and Jack Petranker.

Westmoor's C.S.F. membership, based on first semester grades, now consists of eighty-five students. Officers Jack Petranker, President; Gloria Moore, Vice-president; and Ann Irby, Secretary-Treasurer plan to attend the conference.

Other members present will be Pam Byrne, Cindi Cooke, Stacy Cusulos, Michael Hunter, Denise Jamin, Marguerite Jarchow, Nancy Loes, Virginia Maches, Linda Owen, Kris Peerland, Eugene Poggio, Sherry Rosen, Deborah Skootsky, Ricky Spector, Diana Stipelkovich, Jeff Thomas, Sue Wiard, and Margaret Wong.

Vocational Counseling April 3 at S. S. F.

"How am I going to earn a living?" is a question high school students often ask themselves. To help students in answering this question the South San Francisco High School vocational counseling department began "Career Day" three years ago.

Previous to Career Day students answer a poll which determines how many and what kind of speakers are needed.

On Career Day, April 3, students will again spend the last two periods of their school day listening to two of more than 57 speakers who will come to the school.

TV and RADIO

By Mona Baker

LAYTON JONES, head of math and science department at Oceana High School in Pacifica, takes a reading on the electric meter in his physical science class. On the closed-circuit television camera is Charles Gillespie, a junior.

The high school students watched intently as instructor John Wherry dissected a clam.

Every movement the teacher made could be easily followed as they were watching the experiment over the television screen.

The class was one that had been participating in the five-week research program in the use of closed circuit television in the classroom at Oceana High School in Pacifica.

Oceana is one of two high schools in the state of California to experiment with closed circuit television. This system differs from regular television in that the camera is right in the same room with the instructor. While he lectures, closeups of his movements are transferred to the television sets in the classroom.

The advantages of such a system as a teaching tool were quite obvious as we watched the experiment.

Particularly in a science class there are so many times that closeups are needed and it takes time for the class to gather around the experiment.

We also watched the television class in French. Again the students could follow the movements of the teacher's mouth as she pronounced the French words; helping their pronunciation.

Pioneering the television project at Oceana is Layton Jones who heads the science and math departments. Although final appraisal of the project is yet to be compiled, Mr. Jones told us that teachers, students and parents have been enthusiastic.

There was interest elsewhere in the Bay Area too in the project. KPIX sent reporter Nancy Clark down to the school last Friday for a special report. She did a feature report for KPIX "Big News," interviewing Mr. Jones and photographing the students in the classrooms.

We'll be interested in learning the final results of the five week project. Certainly in other states and other nations, television has proven to be a most effective teaching tool both in closed circuit systems and educational programs telecast over educational channels.

COMING PROGRAMS: Activities of Bay Area Girl Scouts including many from San Mateo County will be seen on "Youth Serves the Future" (KRON-TV, 6:30 p.m., March 27).

KPIX will trace history of "Lotta's Fountain" in special documentary on April 1, 8 p.m.

Annual Science Fair

When the Benjamin Franklin School opened its door on the second annual science fair this month, a host of young people, their parents and interested viewers were waiting to see the exhibits and projects.

Science students of the seventh and eighth grades had prepared a wide variety of exhibits. Members of the Advanced Science elective classes and regular science classes had made extra preparations for the event with the assistance of their teachers.

Visitors were attracted to the ingenious designs of "Wind Tunnels." Brad Menary used a vacuum cleaner in his aeronautical design. March Waidelich used a smoke chamber to show the effects of various wing designs.

Guy Aronson and Richard Tosetti combined their efforts to build a 130 pound model of a "Coal Mining Shaft."

David Pava's "Steam Engine" exhibit, Steve Sale's "Van De Graff Model" and Mike Tufo's "Field Magnets" gave students and adults a history and explanation of scientific principles. "The History of Clocks" was exhibited by Sharon Rudnick and Pamela Zaharis.

Electrical Power

Those guests who were interested in biology and physiology were looking at Lynne Coleman's model of "How Your Lungs Work" and Scott Bjorkquist's "Dissection of a Frog." The small parts and mechanism of a Hearing Aid were exhibited by Ernest Boden.

Students and guests were listening to the 'Buzz-z-z' of George Perry's and Dave Goodwin's "Helium Spark Gap." Another exciting exhibit was Bob Horton's "Fluorescent Rocks." The turn table rotated to offer viewers a look at rocks under normal and ultra-violet light.

A plaster of paris model by Muriel Friedman gave a visual background for understanding "Glaciers." James Arnott and Alan Mayfield prepared an exhibit called "Water for Man." Mitchell Keil carried on some original investigation for his "Metallurgy" project.

Pointing to possible future sources of food, Shay Abbey presented an exhibit on "Algae." Carol Crawford and Sue Phillips explained their classroom project on "Hydroponics" by growing plants in water with minerals. This is a probable method of replacing vanishing farmlands.

Distillation

Steve Douglas prepared his project on "distillation" using alcohol, and Tina Andrews and Christine O'Donnell diagrammed the "Distillation of Water."

Exhibits adding a bit of local interest included "What is Smog" by Richard Esposto and Milo Wood, and Larry Taylor's "Monorail." Larry's exhibit will be entered in the Bay Area Science Fair to be held March 30 to April 3 at the California Academy of Science in San Francisco along with Marc Waidelich's "Wind Tunnel." Judges for the event were Mr. Don Davis, Mrs. Helen Delafield, Mr. Clay Kollman, Mr. Vern Mara and Mr. Edward Mosconi.

Len Herbst, principal of Benjamin Franklin School worked with Miss Beverly Dalstone and Mrs. Margie Downey, teachers who helped the students arrange and display their projects. Miss Dalstone was involved in the initial planning and preparation for the science fair.

Praying Mantis At Colma K-6

Last fall a very unusual pet came to live with the children in Mrs. Klaisner's First Grade at Colma K-6 School. It was a female praying mantis from the San Joaquin Valley. Being a carnivorous insect and a tremendous eater, it was quite a task for the boys and girls to keep her in live insects, but everyone was very faithful in providing fresh food for her.

After about two months, "Manty" deposited her eggs in their frothy egg cases on the twigs placed in the terrarium for this purpose and then she died, her life cycle complete.

Now with spring near, the eggs are hatching and to date Room 11 has about two hundred baby praying mantis. Since they destroy harmful garden insects, it has been no problem to find homes for them.

The students are anxious to see if these babies will remain in the gardens in Daly City or return to the warmer San Joaquin Valley from whence they came.

De Young Museum Shows AIA Honor Award Winners

Photographs and plans mounted on panels and scale models illustrating 36 award winning buildings designed by Northern California architects and completed or remodeled since 1957 are now on display at the M. H. deYoung Memorial Museum through Monday, April 15.

Included in the display are Fernando Rivera Elementary School and Westmoor High School, architects Clampi and Reiter, which won National Honor Awards by the American Institute of Architects.

General Purpose Shrubs Enhance Landscaping

Check any guide to landscaping in California and you will find certain shrubs which are mentioned over and over again. You find them recommended for foundation, for borders, for patio plantings and even, occasionally, for use in containers. These are bread and butter shrubs in the nursery trade, shrubs which have stood the test of time to gain their popularity.

One of the top members of this exclusive list is the Heavenly Bamboo, also called Sacred Bamboo in its native China. It is not a bamboo, but it looks enough like one to deserve the nickname.

Heavenly Bamboo has the same feathery appearance as real bamboo, sending up canes from which a lacy foliage branches out. As time passes, these clumps become overcrowded with canes, and the gardener should remove a few by cutting them off at the base to preserve the graceful looks.

Heavenly Bamboo is primarily green in color, but its leaves are ever tinged with bronze and in fall they take on even brighter hues of bronze and red. Inland, this fall coloring is often intense, but even along the coast you get some lovely autumn displays from Heavenly Bamboo.

In spring, the Heavenly Bamboo produces large clusters of small white flowers which are followed by berries that turn bright red in fall. In coastal gardens, temperatures are not always warm enough to insure good berry set, but inland, the berries are a big addition to the fall show.

Heavenly Bamboo grows to four or five feet in height and the California Association of Nurserymen reports that a dwarf variety is also available which stays only half that height. Try it in tubs for an attractive display, or use it wherever else in the garden you will. Another shrub which stands near the top of our "most widely used" list is Oregon Grape, one of several useful members of the Holly Grape family. The Oregon Grape boasts glossy foliage which is not at all unlike the foliage of a holly or an oak. In spring, it puts forth bright clusters of yellow bloom and these are followed by the blue-black "grapes" which give the family its common name.

The Oregon Grape is an ever-changing picture in the garden. In spring, its new growth is a ruddy, bronze color red and, of course, the spring bloom adds its splash of yellow. In summer, some of the mature leaves take on bright red coloring and as the berries mature, they become ever more a deep blue-black. Then, in fall, the red or coppery coloring becomes even more pronounced until your might think that here is a deciduous shrub which is coloring up before dropping its leaves. You'd be wrong to think it, though, for Oregon Grape is an evergreen albeit a chameleon type of evergreen.

Third on our list is the Lily-of-the-Valley Shrub, a graceful, slightly drooping shrub of considerable merit. It is more widely used in northern than in southern California, but it will do well wherever you plant it if you give it plenty of peat moss and leaf mold in the soil.

Lily-of-the-Valley Shrub is worth any extra attention which might be needed at planting time. Its deep evergreen foliage and irregular growth patterns make it a shrub of distinction at any season, but in spring, when its myriad sprays of white or pinkish urn-shaped flowers are out, it is truly a thing of beauty. These blooms look enough like Lilies of the Valley to warrant the shrubs' common name. Like the Heavenly Bamboo, it can be grown anywhere, including in a tub.

A fourth member of our "most used" club — perhaps the most widely used of all — is the ever faithful Glossy Abelia. When a gardener needs a friend, here it is — always clean and fresh in appearance, loaded with pink or white flowers through summer and into fall, indifferent to the gardener's attention or the type of soil in which it is planted.

Abelias are most attractive when pruned selectively, by removing branches completely to open up the shrub. They can be sheared like any hedge, however, and if you want a flowering hedge, abelia is one of the best. A medium height shrub, it also fits foundation or border and none will give you more for less. Be sure of that.
